

From classroom to research laboratory

Research Assistantships
for High School Students (RAHSS) with NSF-Funded Small Businesses

Are you a motivated high school student ready to...

Address real-world challenges with hands-on applications to STEM?

Preview STEM studies before college?

Interact with STEM and business mentors in a small business/startup environment?

Become engaged in innovative and entrepreneurial thinking?

By the numbers...

Up to $6000/high school student

Up to 2 students per SBIR/STTR company

[http://www.nsf.gov/eng/iip/sbir/portfolio/
researchexp.jsp](http://www.nsf.gov/eng/iip/sbir/portfolio/researchexp.jsp)

National Science Foundation
4201 Wilson Boulevard
Arlington, VA 22230

How to Apply for a Research Assistantship for High School Students with a Small Business Innovative Research Company

- Application instructions can be found here: nsf.gov/eng/iip/sbir/portfolio/researchexp.jsp.
- High school student (RAHSS) applicants are strongly encouraged to work with a (RET) teacher applicant as a student/teacher research pair.
- To find information on an SBIR grantee in your area, visit nsf.gov/eng/iip/sbir/portfolio.jsp and click on any blue marker. industries and universities

Visit the RAHSS webpage at:

